Of Special Interest This Week

+ For the Senate Armed Services Committee, FBIS developed from its media files a list of all Soviet proposals for moratoriums made public in the media during the past two years. All of the proposals were in the arms control area. FBIS received the request through the Arms Control Intelligence Staff.

+ A Bibliography of FBIS Publications published in August 1984 has proved of sufficient value to consumers that they have ordered more than the 500 copies originally printed. FBIS will print another 100 copies of this year's version, with a larger press run scheduled for the next issuance in August. Director Charles Z. Wick of USIA has requested 200 copies of the new edition to send to posts around the world.

+ Herb Levin, Staff Director of the House Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs, asked FBIS for a memo on usual itineraries for distinguished visitors to North Korea. The research is for Congressman Solarz, who has been invited by the DPRK to visit. The request came through the Office of Legislative Liaison.
